

Street Bank has been pledged $1,000,000.

Bonds and securities reported missing.

Ald. Merriam demanded investigation of placing of $650,000 city funds in LaSalle Street Bank.

A. J. Sabbath paid over to city check for $25,000 to pay the Chicago Bonding and Security Company's liability on the city's deposits in the Ashland-Twelfth State Bank.

State Auditor Jim Brady says State Bank of Marine, Ill., will soon reopen.

—o—o—
MARGARET WILSON HERE

Margaret Wilson, eldest daughter of the president, arrived in Chicago today. On Thursday she will address the General Federation of Women's Clubs on the need of social centers for working girls. Miss Wilson amused the crowd while trying to dodge photographers.

IN REGARD TO GETTING WORK FOR THE JOBLESS

Washington, June 16.—Commissioner General Caminetti of bureau of immigration inaugurated movement to enlist aid of press in bringing about better distribution of labor. The bureau will acquire information from state, county and municipal authorities where men are needed. The press then will be asked to publish these opportunities so that the men and the jobs can be brought together.

—o—o—
WHAT THE COUNCIL DID

Sent back to finance committee all matters relative to contract for superstructure on first municipal pier on North Side.

Ald. Nance wants dry sweeping in loop stopped. Referred to streets and alleys committee.

Ald. Richert had 19 civil service employes, fired for old age, reinstated at 85 per cent of former salary.

Passed resolution on death of Adlai E. Stevenson.

—o—o—
THE WOMEN'S FEDERATION

General Federation of Women's Clubs will re-elect old officers today.

Women endorsed teaching of sex hygiene.

Federation also condemned new dances and recommended revival of old waltzes, two-steps, etc.

Pure food fight will be started by federation.

Miss Lutie E. Stearns, Wisconsin, spoke against evil influence of small flats.

—o—o—
THE OFFICIAL O. K.

The queen of hearts, she made some tarts—that is, some baby pies;

The food inspector came around to see if she used dyes.

He found no glucose in those pies reposing on the shelf;

He was so sure they were pure he ate a few himself.

—Grand Rapids Press.